Battle of Britain Memorial at Capel-Le-Ferne and The Scramble Experience

Friday 8th June. Arrive at the Memorial site at 11:00am/depart 2:00pm

The Battle of Britain Memorial Trust extends a warm welcome to those who wish to show their respects to the heroes of the Battle of Britain by visiting this unique site of pilgrimage.

The National Memorial to the Few is a peaceful space, ideal for quiet reflection, atop the famous White Cliffs and offering superb views across the Channel to France.

The central statue of a lone pilot is complemented by the Christopher Foxley-Norris Memorial Wall, two replica aircraft and other items of interest.

Included in the cost is entry to the new interactive Scramble Experience.

This features a unique immersive video that brings to life the Battle of Britain and was commissioned just for the Trust.

It's so powerful that it brought a lump to the throat of one of those who flew throughout the Battle when he watched it for the first time.

The on-site café sells hot drinks, soft drinks, ice creams, snacks, sandwiches and confectionery but currently does not serve hot food.

Therefore we recommend you bring your own snack if required.

£12.00 fare and entry per person.

"Please pass on our thanks and congratulations to everyone concerned, including yourselves in the box office, for giving us such a fantastic experience on Friday afternoon. An absolute tonic. The meal was delicious, served piping hot by friendly efficient staff. Then we sat back, relaxed with a drink, for an afternoon of laughter and fun. We laughed until we cried and our sides ached, and that applied to all of us not just me. The costumes were also great. It's such a heartwarming, magical place to be, where you can forget all your cares and woes!!"
